Check-in was smooth, Kari met us close by and guided us up to the house. This house has such an interesting layout. We loved the many common areas and the ability to escape to a private sitting areas. The pool is nice to have after a day of moving around the island (note the closest food store is 15 min away, very well stocked). We used the...

The view is breathtaking the ocean and hillside during the day, a star filled sky at night. The house was clean and full of amenities. The space was cool with a neat set up. Great for couples sharing a house. The host was very informative, friendly, and accommodating. We had a great time. Glad we had a jeep to drive on the island roads and...

If you are looking for a peaceful, private home with a pool and beautiful views, this is the place. Very comfortable for our family of six. You will need a rental car if you want to truly see and explore the island. The place is showing a little wear but the amenities (shampoo and conditioner, laundry supplies, kitchen supplies, etc.) were appreciated. Overa...
