We couldn't have asked for a better place to stay in St. Croix. This casita/carriage house was just steps away from a beautiful and private Caribbean beach. At night, you are put to sleep with the sounds of the waves crashing ashore. Highly recommend staying here if you are looking for a little slice of secluded heaven, yet not too far from the all the action of the town.

Peter & Tracey, are the ideal Airbnb Host. They provided so much value information about the area, what to do & see. We loved the peaceful vibe of the island. Everyday our family of 4 (2 adults, 2 children) found a new amazing adventure to go on. From Hiking the tide pools (about 4.5 miles total there and back) to walking the beach out front every morning & night finding sea glass & cheney. Must do hike to Isaac Bay & check out all the cool Driftwo...

Our stay at Peter's was great. He was very friendly and helpful. He treated us as his personal guests. The house was bigger than the photos made it look. It was clean, had very comfortable beds and was in a nice private location. The deck was great for meals and the small beach front was just perfect for sitting in the shade with a book and a cup of coffee....
