The chicken strips. Are the best I've had in the VI. Well seasoned, lightly and perfectly crusted. The potato salad is like Dominican style with red peppers and other condiments mixed. Highly recommend.

Hi all. We came to this beautiful bungalow setting cottage 17. We got to the island and the taxi driver picked us up at the airport and dropped us off here. Got our cottage. And was so very impressed with it. And we didn't know much about this area. Because it was our 1st time being on the island. So if you come please bring some snacks. Well back to arriving got our cottage. Talked to Miss Linda. The lady was so amazing. We were hungry. But it was too late to order anything. So she so kindly offered some food from her own bungalow. And gave it to me and my wife. Now to me this lady . in my book is a SAINT!!!! Her hospitality is like no other. So today we are going to explore. And watch our Daughter get Married.

So I highly recommend this place . I give it 5 stars. Thank you for reading. Brian K Reed

The property is decent enough and the beach spectacular. However, the manager, John McCoy, is a prolific animal abuser. This photo is from another property he recently managed. It appears these animals were abandoned and haven't been fed in weeks. He also has 30 pending claims in small claims court. I do not recommend doing business with anyone who would hire him.

While the location was nice, the rooms were dirty and we got so many bed bug bites, we had to check out very early. It could be such a nice place but needs a lot of work. The pool was not operational and the restaurant was not open.

It's such a mix of stars to give. I will break it down the best I can Chenay Bay is an older established rental place to stay. It's a cluster of cottages that you can pick and choose to stay in. Each cottage offers something a bit different and depends on what you are going for when you get here. Some are actual single room cottages and others are studios that attach to another unit, great for families and really close friends. There is a door in between the cottages that can be locked at any time.

Cottages 41, 42, 47,48 are located at the far end and give the best view of the ocean and privacy

Cottages 8&9 are nice one bedroom but don't have a view. They both have full kitchens but 8 is more updated.

Cottage 2 offers great views, a studio setup but it is the closest to the check in/out desk.

I can only speak for #47&48 for inside details. They offer an amazing 5 star view but the inside needs some updating. It worked fine for what I needed but some light switches don't work and furniture is mixed match and just looks worn. I guess that is the best way to describe the interior~worn. There is 2 hot plates, mini fridge and all the pots and pans included. We ended up going to seaside market to purchase breakfast stuff and snacks throughout the day.

There is a bar and a snack shack of sorts to eat at. Hours will vary pending how many people are actually residing at resort so I wouldn't count on it as a guarantee go to but more as a "oh look there open"

The beach is small but perfect for what you need. Plenty of chairs and towels. There is a small company(not associated with the resort) that rents gear and paddle boards for $30 an hour.

Overall not a bad place to be just conditions are worn, staff is friendly and island life is relaxed.

I absolutely loved this place. The facilities were decent (not like a 5-star or anything, but had all necessities). The water and beach were amazing. The food at the restaurant on site was decent. The drinks were good. The staff were incredible and went out of their way to help (I had trouble getting the top back on my Jeep and someone was more than happy to help me try). We kayaked out to the nearby island, and it was beautiful. Felt very at home here.
