A wonderful week in Paradise

We cannot say enough good things about this amazing property, the view, the accommodations, the location all incredible! Mary Pat, the property manager is a gem. She met us when we arrived and took care of any needs we had very promptly and with great kindness. There are so many details about this house that we kept discovering throughout the week. The power went out to the entire island for three hours and we had no idea it had happened as a generator immediately kicked in and we had full power and A/C! We are looking forward to when we can return.

Jamie was so helpful with information way before our stay and during our stay. The large kitchen and bar area was where we gathered the most when we were not outdoors. Everything was well equipped. I loved the large dining room where all ten of us could sit around one table for dinner. Chef Sean cooked for us three nights and he was pleasant, professional, and accommodating for our two gluten gluten-free and one shellfish allergy members. We all would love to go back.
