No Taxis available

4/5 ★★★★★

The home was beautiful, and only 3 minute drive to a lovely beach. However, if you dont want to cook at the house, or simply go anywhere, you will need to be comfy with driving on the opposite side of the road. The taxis will not.come to the area, the one said he was coming, I waited for nearly an hour, and nothing. When I called back, he cursed me out and hung up. Nick was the highlight of the trip, he looked out for us since customer services there is very bad. Yhe house is lovely, and secluded which what we wanted. The only restaurant in walking distance, is only open during the weekends. If you can get to the beach, there are a few good places with food. The weather was perfect, but be ready for the misquotes! The owners had sun tan loction, chairs, and everything else you may need. You will need to make arrangements to meet Nick to check in/out. A lockbox would be nice, just a suggestion. It was the perfect amount of space for our group.

Manager's Response:

Hi Shanquarian, thanks for your review! This homeowner has asked us to pass along the following response: "Yes, thank you for your feedback. It is true that you really need to rent a car to stay at our home. The home is peaceful and secluded, but it is not in town, and to get to town - groceries stores or restaurants - you will need a rental car. This information is on the listing so guests can know before booking, but we will look into how we can reiterate it to be as clear as possible!"

House was perfect for us, 3 bedrooms, beautiful views, fresh mango smoothies every morning made from mango tree in front of the house. The host Nicholas made our stay. He was very helpful with information on where to eat and go, very responsive met us at the airport to drop and pick up keys. AC went out he arranged to have it replaced. He is a true asset to this property.

Just what we needed

My mother and I went to begin work on the house that she wants to sell. It was emotional and difficult, so they secluded home on the hilltop with a beautiful view of the North Shore, was just lovely. Thanks for everything. Althea was excellent.
